Opening with a moment of silence

Elba City Council honors memory of Councilman David L. Bandstra

by Ferrin Cox, Publisher

The Elba City Council meeting opened Monday evening with a moment of silence in memory of Councilman David Bandstra who died last Thursday.

As the council settled down to handle the routine business of the City, Bandstra's empty chair appeared out of place, as he rarely missed a meeting.

In the absence of Police Chief Freddy Hanchey, Lt. John Nelson reported the status of the police department. He noted that business was mostly routine. He added that there were some investigations ongoing which he was not quite ready to talk about openly.

The council voted on a new jail agreement with Coffee County with Councilman Tom Hooks voting no. The agreement is several pages long but calls for an immediate $5 increase in the daily charge for city prisoners taken to the county jail. The new charge will now be $20 and future annual increases will be automatic and based on the "USDA Consumer Price Index - all Urban Consumers - All Items."

Council members were told this charge applies to all persons taken to the jail, even those who are booked in and bonded out within ten minutes of arrival.

City Clerk Wayne Grantham reported the trailer park at the end of the airport runway is now void of mobile homes. He urged citizens to be careful around the square area as the sidewalk rebuild project is underway. However on May 5th the electrical contractor will move in to begin relocating the power lines.

Mayor James Grimes reported he has in-hand a signed agreement with the state of Alabama for release of the funds left in the levee project account.

These funds ($824,316.58) will be used for a grocery list of approved expenditures including levee maintenance equipment and some additional property purchases around the old Beaver Dam Creek bed for use as a bike trail.

The Elba City Council will next meet on Monday, May 12, at 5:30 p.m. at Elba City Hall.

The Coffee County, Elba Division, Grand Jury met in regular session Monday, April 21.

Bandstra died last Friday in a Doham hospital and was buried earlier in the day Monday. He was present and voting at the April 14th meeting of the city council and at the time in apparent good health. Bandstra served as the District 2 city councilman. City and chamber officials provide refreshments for "Boll Weevil 100" riders coming through Elba

by Linda Hodge, Editor

The Enterprise Lions Club sponsored the sixth annual "Boll Weevil 100" bicycle ride last Saturday, April 26, with approximately 100 bike riders taking part in the fund raising event.

The bike ride was divided into three categories with routes of 25, 62.5 and 100 miles in length. Those taking part in the longer rides were able to see a good portion of Coffee County and even made their way through Elba on course. All three routes started and ended at the Civic Center in Enterprise.

In an effort to support this event, the City of Elba and Elba Chamber of Commerce joined forces to furnish refreshments such as fruits and Gatorade for those bicyclers coming through town. City officials said they felt it would be a good will gesture to participate in this capacity.

The Elba stop was the SAG 3 Stop on the course and reportedly about 50-60 bikers stopped by for refreshments.

The "stop" was set up on the Old River Road near the boat ramp just off Highway 84 in Elba.

City and chamber officials said they were glad to be able to participate in the event and thoroughly enjoyed it.

The City of Elba and Elba Chamber of Commerce joined forces last Saturday, April 26, to serve as a SAG Stop for bicycle riders participating in the "Boll Weevil 100" ride sponsored by the Enterprise Lions Club. Several of the bike ride participants (about 50-60) made their way through Elba on course for the event and were treated to refreshments courtesy of the city and chamber at the SAG 3 Stop. Above, several bike riders stop just long enough for a photo with Elba Mayor James Grimes and Chamber board president Eddie Vaughan before pedaling through the remainder of the course.

Elba City School System accepts AED donation

by Brian Blair, Staff Writer

While students from Elba Elementary School were enjoying the fun and games of Field Day on Friday, April 25, several staff members were accepting a donation of a tool that could possibly one day be used to save one of their lives in the event of an emergency.

Coffee County EMS donated an Automated External Defibrillator (AED) to the school on Friday. According to school safety coordinator/school resource officer Dean Blair, this is the second AED now in the school system's possession.

Blair assisted in securing the AED for the school from Coffee County EMS through Elba Police Chief Freddy Hanchey.

"We now have two AEDs in the Elba City School System, one AED at each school," said Blair. "It is wonderful to have these in our possession to continue to protect our children and keep them safe while on school grounds."

Blair said the presentation was made during field day activities, because it is a time when a child could have heart problems due to strenuous activities, and the AED could be used.

used.

While the school officials were working to protect the children by accepting the AED, students enjoyed their time out of school for field day by playing on jump-a-roos, and participating in relay races, tug-of-war and other fun activities.

School safety personnel, including Blair, school nurse Starla Amison, Title 4 coordinator Kathy Piland and Elba City Schools Superintendent Danny Weeks, all expressed their gratitude to Coffee County EMS for the generous donation.

Coffee County Commissioners conduct routine meeting

by Linda Hodge, Editor

Commissioners awarded to separate bids during the Monday, April 28, meeting of the Coffee County Commission.

Commissioners voted unanimously to award the bid for publishing the voters' list to the Southeast Sun. The bid amount was $9,687 with a 600-name supplement or $9,999 with a 700-name supplement. This was the only bid received for the project.

Commissioners also voted unanimously to award the bid for the inmate telephone/management system to Securities Management Systems at 48.5 percent of the gross for a contract term of three years. Only one other company submitted a bid for this project.

County engineer Randy Tindell received permission from commissioners to send out bids for oil (one-time shipment) and to send out bids for 40-yard containers for the roll-off service.

Tindell also suggested to commissioners that the county send out letters to landfill customers regarding an upcoming change in disposal fees now that the state has passed a law for a $1 per ton disposal fee at landfills. He said this fee will become effective in October of this year, and the county needs to get a letter out to customers so they can prepare for it in their budgets.

County administrator presented one request to commissioners for approval during Monday's meeting. She said the county's FSA (Farm Service Agency) office had asked for an extension of the lease for the building expansion. The request was to extend the lease until June 2010 while the office works out the long-term with the USDA. Commissioners approved this request.

Also during Monday's meeting, commissioners approved a motion made by Commissioner Linda Westbrook to waive the rental fee of the farm center for a church revival being held at the venue on May 12.

Finally, commissioners discussed.

Troy University preserves Congressman's papers

BRAINSTORMS
With Ferrin Cox

It is not unusual to pick up a newspaper and read of some long lost friends and/or family members reconnecting after years of having lost contact. Well it happened to us last week. The phone rang shortly after lunch Thursday and it was an old Army buddy we last saw 49 years ago (December 7th to be exact) standing in the snow at the airport in Frankfurt, Germany. The Army told me to get on the plane and he had to wait for a later flight. He said I had gone to school at Ft. Rucker together, shipped to Ft. Sill, Okla. on the same set of orders, changed companies together, shipped overseas together - with the same unit, roomed together, etc. and were coming home for discharge together. Our only contact since, was a birth announcement sent to our parents address. It was misplaced, along with the necessary return address. Years of efforts on both our parts failed until his internet search found our world in a long list of "Coxes" and "70 years old". A light went off in his head as he reached for the telephone. Things have changed a bit, in all those years. Now a retired airline pilot with 20 grandchildren and several great-grandchildren, he has family scattered from Hawaii to the East coast of Florida. That is just the ones in the U.S. Gene and his wife live in Southern Utah, about 50 miles from the Grand Canyon. He claimed to have been burning something in the back yard one day, but my vision of his part of the country is there is nothing out there but sand and clay, so it sure wasn't limbs and/or leaves he had stuck to a match! Also, a picture e-mailed later reveals he has aged a bit, unlike this country boy! Thursday was a great day on this hill.

The article to the right about Representative Terry Everett and the preserving of his congressional papers brings to me a long list of e-mail we received recently. The whole word (including this writer) feels we have the God given right to help our legislators make their decisions, including where to spend money. This recent e-mail was no exception. Our writer had read of the nice political war chest Terry has accumulated during the past 16 years and had great ideas of where he should spend it. . . . (on the letter writer's pet project of course). Having known Terry since long before he moved to the front row in politics, there is no doubt in our mind that he and wife Barbara have a carefully plotted plan for every dollar in that campaign fund. Of course if he hasn't we are also ready with a few "minor" suggestions!

City Councilman David Banstra's death was a shock to the whole community. For someone to be laughing and joking while appearing ill and hardly when we last saw him on April 14th, to die on the 25th of lung cancer is unusual to say the least. Yet if it was a truly unstoppable cancer, we think God spared David (and his family) lots of pain with the plan as it played out. None of us ever really ready to give up our friends or loved ones. However, neither do we want to see them suffer terribly, lingering pains. It is our prayer that God will continue to care for those family members of all who die and give them some understanding or acceptance of that oft asked question "Why me, Lord?"

Troy University will play a major role in preserving the legacy of U.S. Congressman Terry Everett. TROY's Archives of Wiregrass History and Culture, which is located on the Dothan Campus, is home to the eight-term congressman's records. The first documents began arriving in 2002. Now at 170 boxes, the Everett collection is the largest housed at the Archives. It currently contains papers from his congressional office dating from 1993 to 2006. The Congressman and his wife, Barbara, recently visited Troy University to learn how the documents are stored.

"I am honored that nearly a decade ago Troy University agreed to host my congressional papers for future study by students and historians," Everett said. "Over the last 16 years in Congress, I have been active on many fronts while serving the Second District. My work has spanned the leadership of a half dozen subcommittees of the House Agriculture, Armed Services, Intelligence and Veterans Affairs committees. I am pleased to share the records of my congressional activities with Wiregrass scholars in anticipation that it will provide a greater understanding of the inner workings of our democracy and inspire others to public service."

A 1999 agreement between former Dothan Campus President Dr. Mike Malone and Congressman Everett made TROY the official repository of the records and sparked the creation of the Archives, which had been a dream of Malone's, according to Dr. Marty Olliff, TROY archivist and associate professor of history.

Olliff said the Everett records will provide excellent material for researchers of Alabama and congressional history. TROY students taking classes in ses and student papers in this material waiting to be written," Dr. Olliff remarked. "The Farm Bill alone and the Congressman's work on the Agriculture Committee are extremely important to the Wiregrass."

PASTOR'S CORNER

Rev. Billy Redd

1st Assembly of God

Friends of Christ.....

We sing a song that says, "I am a friend of God, HE calls me friend." In our relationship with God that is what He wants to establish with us. Friendship! Why? A friend is one you can count on. Concerning the church Ephesians 5:27 tells us Christ is returning to get the church which is full of folks you can count on those who do not have "spots or wrinkles".

Friends who have been faithful friends that can be counted on to be there when needed, no blemishes. Within John 15 starting at verse 3 & 4 it tells us how we can remain a friend of Christ and stay clean. Verse 3 "Now ye are clean through the word which I have spoken unto you."

4. Abide in me, and I in you. As the branch cannot bear fruit of itself, except it abide in the vine, no more can ye, except ye abide in me. "Abide" is to remain with, continue with, dwell with, and simply abide - this is a command to remain with Christ. The latter part of verse 4 gives us the reason: without Christ you will not be able to bear any fruit. Matthew 6:33 also tells us how to accomplish this: "Seek ye first the kingdom of God and His righteousness: (be His friend), and all these things shall be added unto you".

This shows us a natural God given benefit of living for God and putting Him first! Your needs will be met. Within verse 4 the "Abide", "I am", carries additional meaning; it means in union with, consecration to the same end - one in mind, purpose, and life. Men become one in spirit with God when we join ourselves to Him in consecration of our lives to serve Him. First Corinthians 6:17, "But he that is joined unto the Lord is one spirit." Looking again at John 15 and verse 5 we see that Christ is the vine and we are the "branches" growing forth from the vine and we should be producing fruit!! The one thing we must realize is that our success depends on Jesus Christ. Why? Notice the latter part of verse 5: "For without me Christ ye can do nothing". Your relationship to Christ must be a good friend to friend relationship.

Top Ten named for Zion Chapel's Class of 2008

by Ashley Hudson and Ashley Snellgrove

Seniors are honored each year for their academic achievements through being named as honor graduates.

Students' grade point averages are determined by their semester grades for the past four years, including ninth, tenth, eleventh, and twelfth grade. The GPA's are calculated to include these semesters in addition to the third nine weeks' grades.

The student with the highest GPA is honored with the title of valedictorian. The student with the second highest GPA is honored with the title of salutatorian.

A student who is on the advanced academic endorsement diploma track can only be eligible for the title of valedictorian and/or salutatorian. In order to be eligible to get these titles, the students' grades are calculated without any physical education, band, or athletic classes.

Zion Chapel's varsity baseball team completes successful 2008 season

by Summer Parker

Everyone in the school and community is pleased with the Zion Varsity baseball team.

The team made a big improvement from last year. The varsity baseball team collected 16 wins and suffered 12 losses. That is a big improvement from last year, when the record was four wins and 14 losses.

Zion Chapel won the conference game and finished second in the area. It is the first time ZC has made it to the playoff game in two years.

The varsity boys are proud to say they gave Providence Christian their first area loss in baseball.

Drew Little, a junior at Zion Chapel, will be going to Auburn University to play his tender saxophone in the All-state honor band.

Drew went to auditions at Troy University and scored 107 out of 125. He is one of two tenor saxophones attending Allstate.

Prom night is probably the most anticipated night of the year for teens and one of the most dreaded by their parents.

Although most teens think they know everything about how to stay safe, parents know otherwise. And, according to safety experts, it will take more than just talk to ensure a safe evening for all.

"No matter how strong the family relationship, many parents are still unaware of the choices teens face every day," said Ray Palermo, director of public information for Teachers' Insurance.

"For parents to successfully reach their kids, they'll have to approach safety issues in new, often more direct ways." Teachers' offered several tips that go beyond "don't drink and drive."

Parents:

- Talk specifically about what they should say or do in certain high-risk situations.
- Consider having a mutually agreed on "contract" for the night. Set out rules regarding post-prom parties or other activities - with whom they will be, where, for how long and what they will be doing.
- Get the names of other prom-goers and phone numbers of their parents.
- Set a curfew based on past

Students "explore" science in Mobile

by Karen Huckabae

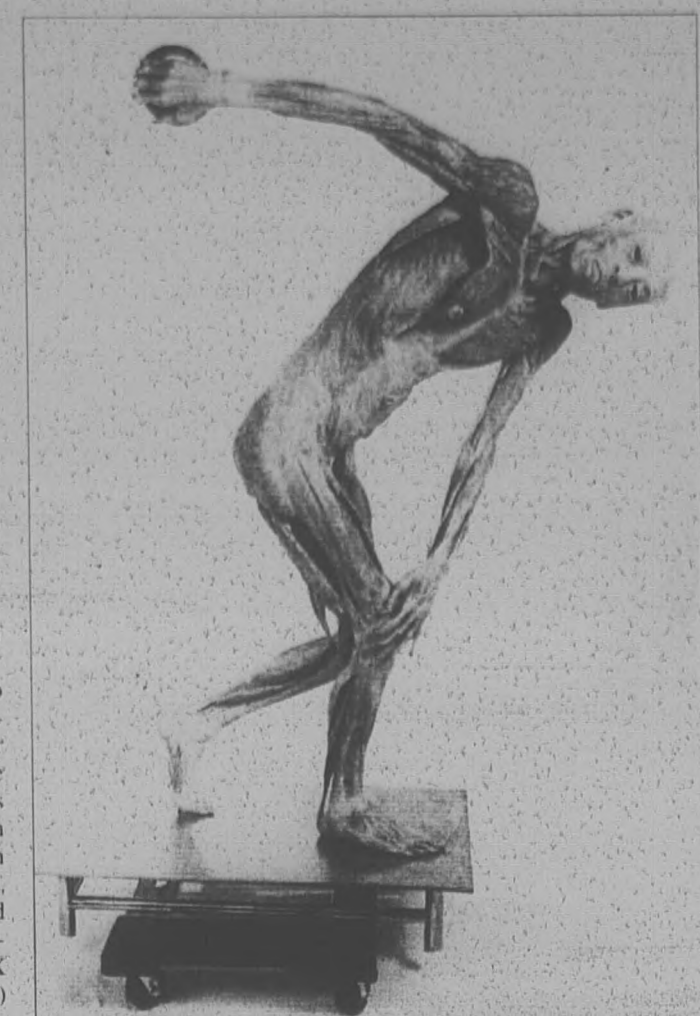

On Wednesday, April 2, Coach Peacock took his anatomy and physiology class to Mobile to the Gulf Coast Explorium to view the Human Body Exhibit.

The tour guide explained how important the exhibit was in that the students would be seeing actual human bodies in a preserved form. Students were asked to respect the bodies - after all they were once alive.

The students were amazed at the detail in the preserved bodies. They were able to view all the systems in the body up close. They also viewed what cancer looks like in human organs as well as the lungs of someone who had smoked.

Then the students got to go to the fun part, the hands-on exhibits where they got to tinker and pull on the different science toys. They met for an IMAX movie (back at the Explorium) about the human body.

Justin Hammonds, a senior, said he enjoyed the experience, especially the hands-on lab and the human body exhibit. Brittany Holley, also a senior, said she wouldn't trade the experience for anything, and the movie was awesome.

During a recent trip to the Gulf Coast Explorium in Mobile, Ala., anatomy and physiology students at Elba High School were able to view actual human bodies in a preserved form.

Mrs. Buckelew, a teacher at Elba High School who served as a chaperone, said the trip was very educational and that she enjoyed the movie.

The trip was a great success, and it proved worthwhile for the students and the school.

VIEWS FROM...

THE PRESSBOX

BY RICKY MULARZ, SPORTS EDITOR

Melanie came home one afternoon last week to go to the beauty shop and at the ripe old age of 19 is already worried about having to cover up her gray hair. My hair changed from brown to gray to white many years ago, and I guess she has inherited her Dad's hair color and will have to fight the battle for years to come. One day in the future she may be like my Mom and just smile when you ask her what her natural hair color really is!

FOR WHAT IT IS WORTH...

 The Elba Lady Tigers lost three regular season games last week as their record slipped to 6-10, but the Elba girls came back to life over the weekend and won three games in their own tournament in four games and will now enter the area tournament with a 9-11 record and some momentum. The Lady Tigers looked like anything but a contender early in the week in losses to Headland, Goshen and Straughn and were outscored by the combined score of 23-5. However, they won two games in pool play over Opp and Goshen and then whipped Arton before falling to Straughn in the finals. If the Lady Tigers play well on defense and hit the ball they should have a very good chance at making it out of the area and on to sub-state play, and after last weekend's performance maybe they are ready to go on a roll.

 The Brantley Bulldogs won their second round series last week in the high school baseball playoffs over South Lamar and this weekend will host Sweet Water in third round action. The Bulldogs suffered a loss in game two last weekend and faced elimination, but proved once again they have three solid starting pitchers and came through in the clutch for the second straight week to advance. All area baseball fans need to make plans to head over to Brantley Friday night and watch what will be some very entertaining high school baseball.

 The area tournaments will be held this week in high school softball and all area teams have high hopes of advancing to sub-state play. The Kinston Lady Bulldogs have proven over and over again they can play with any team in the state, regardless of class, and only need to start swinging the bats with more consistency to get back on track. Zion Chapel has its best team in years and is more than capable of knocking off any opponent at its area event if it plays it's best, and believes in itself. New Brockton has a very talented young team and has already proven it can play with the best around, and just needs to play well to move on. Brantley's record is far from impressive, but the Lady Bulldogs are a very dangerous group and can hold their own against anybody on any given day. Yep, this week's area tournaments will be very interesting.

 In closing... The youth baseball and softball seasons are underway all across South Alabama, and I have been a little disappointed with the fans and their actions at a couple of games. It seems some of the fans shout at the umpires more than ever, and last week I heard some comments that were totally uncalled for. I have always let the fans have a little fun and poke fun at umpires over the years, but unless something changes very soon it may be time to do like other towns and adopt a "zero tolerance" policy for fans when it comes to speaking to the umpires. Children, folks, the umpires are young men and women, and are doing their best, even if they miss a call now and then. Maybe one night we should invite the fans to come out of the bleachers and let them umpire a few games. Either we would find out they don't know what they are talking about or just maybe find a couple of new umpires that will never miss a call.

Elba used a one-out single by Toshamba Jones and an RBI single by Chessie Cross to grab a 2-0 lead in the top of the first, and added two more runs in the second when Lindsey Carney ripped an RBI triple and later scored on a double by Toshamba Jones. Arton scored twice in the bottom of the frame to pull within 4-2, but Elba added a run in the third on a single by Ashley Carpenter and an RBI single by Kayla Miller and held on to post the 5-2 win. Toshamba Jones had 2 hits, scored 1 run and knocked in 1 run to lead Elba at the plate, while Lindsey Carney was the hard luck loser inside the circle as she pitched six innings and allowed two unearned runs on one hit and struck out four batters.

Alabama retirees, disabled vets still can file for 2008 Stimulus Payments

Even though April 15 has passed, the Internal Revenue Service has reminded more than 500,000 in Alabama who normally do not have to file a tax return that there is still time to submit a 2007 return to receive an economic stimulus payment. "It's not too late to file for a stimulus payment, and it's easy to do," said IRS spokesman

Dan Boone. "But you must file a 2007 federal tax return by Oct. 15 to get a stimulus payment this year."

People who have no tax filing requirement but have a least $3,000 in qualifying income should file a simple Form 1040A. Qualifying income includes any combination of earned income, nontaxable combat pay as well as certain payments from Social Security, Veterans Affairs and Railroad Retirement.

Boone also addressed recent questions the IRS has gotten from retirees about the need for extensions or extra filings. "No extension is needed if you're filing a tax return only to get a stimulus payment and did not file by April 15," he said. "And if you have already filed a 2007 federal tax return, you have done all you need to do to qualify for a stimulus payment. The IRS will do the rest."

Boone also reminded filers to watch out for stimulus payment-related scams that may come via e-mail, by phone or even through a scammer coming to your home. "The IRS will not call or visit you or send e-mails about the payments," he said. "Once you file your 2007 federal tax return, the IRS has all the information needed to see if you qualify for a payment."

Boone urged friends and family members to reach out to acquaintances or relatives who may either be unaware of the Economic Stimulus Payment or unable to file the tax return themselves.

The IRS offers several free options for people who need help filing for the stimulus payment.

• Visit www.irs.gov for the latest information showing how to file for stimulus payments. • Call the IRS Economic Stimulus Payment toll-free hotline at 1-866-234-2942. • If people want to file their own return electronically, they can still use Free File - Economic Stimulus Payment, also available at www.irs.gov.

A message from the President ...

LBWCC has good news from the National Center for Education Statistics. Our college was well above the national average and our transfer rate was well above the national average as well. These statistics speak to the value and quality students receive at LBWCC. This summer we will offer a full schedule of course offerings in both university transfer courses and technical programs.

A press conference was held at the Luverne Center on March 31 to announce a $237,000 grant from the Governor's Workforce Development Fund to renovate a portion of the center and create four technical shop areas for industrial maintenance programs. These programs will include welding, robotics, electronics and other high tech fields.

Two LBWCC students were recognized on Tuesday, April 8th, at the annual All-Alabama Academic Team Program held at the Wyntrey Hotel in Birmingham. These students are Natalie Hale, who attends the Andalusia Campus, and Shane Cantrell, who attends the Greenville Campus. These students will receive a $1,000 cash scholarship, in addition to a scholarship to the Alabama university of their choice. These students are to be commended for their outstanding leadership, service and scholastic achievements while attending LBWCC.

Bids were advertised this spring for the completion of the Conference Center in Greenville and planning for the annual Golf Tournament for the Greenville Campus is underway as well.

LBWCC had 26 students compete in the state SkillsUSA competitions this spring and hosted the annual Bass Tournament at Lake Jackson to raise funds for students to attend these skills competition.

LBWCC has been awarded a $150,000 grant from the State Board for Excellence in Education. These funds will be used to enhance technology and communication services between the different campuses.

My sincere appreciation goes out to all our Foundation Board members who volunteered their time and energy to ensure the success of the annual Silent Auction event. LBWCC is fortunate to have both the LBWCC and MacArthur Foundations which provide significant financial support to our students through the many endowed scholarships.

LBWCC continues to provide a caring and quality environment for learning, and I invite you to visit us this summer and take advantage of the opportunity to enjoy and learn.

Financial Aid & Class Attendance

An LBWCC degree is extremely affordable. Low tuition rate and various financial assistance programs are available (see college catalog online at www.lbwcc.edu). The 2007-2008 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) is available online at www.fafsa.ed.gov. Students planning to enroll for spring semester are encouraged to apply for financial aid at the earliest possible date.

IN ORDER TO RECEIVE A PELL GRANT FOR SUMMER SEMESTER: A Student Aid Report must be APPROVED by the Financial Aid Office and on file by the day of registration before a student may charge their tuition, fees, and books to a Pell Grant.

If a student has completed the FAFSA Application and is selected for verification, all required documents must be received in the Financial Aid Office and corrections made, if necessary, by the day of registration. The Financial Aid Director may place the student on Purge Exempt and allow him/her to attend class until the last day of drop/add as long as these requirements are met. However, tuition must be paid by the last day of drop/add or the student will not be allowed to continue attending classes.

A student receiving any financial aid is required to attend classes in which the student has registered. Attendance will be verified by the class instructors. A non-attending student will be administratively dropped from the classes(s) which he/she is not attending. If all classes are reported for non-attendance, the student will be completely dropped. Students will not be paid for second session classes until their attendance is verified.

For further information, contact the Financial Aid Office

MacArthur Campus or Luverne Center - 334-493-5338

Summer Semester 2008 Refund Policies

The student is responsible for completing the Drop/Add form and submitting it to his/her advisor or completing the Withdrawal form and submitting it to the Registrar.

DROP/ADD REFUND POLICY

The student may drop or add a class during the Drop/Add period ONLY. The total number of credit hours or enrollment after the schedule change may result in a refund of tuition (drop) or an additional charge (add). The student is entitled to a 100% refund of institutional cost (tuition and fees) if the completed Drop/Add form is processed on or before the last day of the Drop/Add period.

There is no refund due to a student who partially withdraws from school after the last day of the Drop/Add period.

STATE REFUND POLICY FOR COMPLETE WITHDRAWAL

In accordance with State Board Policy, a student who COMPLETELY withdraws from all classes is entitled to a refund of institutional cost (tuition and fees) as follows:

Refund Withdrawal for Full-term, Evening, & Session III (16-week schedule)	Refund Withdrawal for Mini-Session I (5-week schedule)	Refund Withdrawal for Mini-Session II (5-week schedule)
1st Day of Class: 5/20/08, Drop/Add: 5/30/08	1st Day of Class: 5/20/08, Drop/Add: 5/30/08	1st Day of Class: 7/7/08, Drop/Add: 7/7/08
100% Refund: May 30, 2008	100% Refund: May 30, 2008	100% Refund: July 7, 2008
50% Refund: June 4, 2008	50% Refund: June 3, 2008	50% Refund: July 9, 2008
25% Refund: June 6, 2008	25% Refund: June 5, 2008	25% Refund: July 11, 2008
0% Refund: on or after June 7, 2008	0% Refund: on or after June 6, 2008	0% Refund: on or after July 12, 2008

The student may withdraw from a class or all classes up to the final date for official withdrawal. If the student completely withdraws from school, the refund date is calculated as of the date the completed form is processed by the Registrar. There is no refund due to a student who partially withdraws from school.

FEDERAL RETURN POLICY FOR TITLE IV FINANCIAL AID STUDENTS

The Federal Return Policy is to be used for a TITLE IV financial aid student who COMPLETELY withdraws from all classes. The return of Title IV funds is based on a formula, which determines the percentage of earned aid by calculating the amount of time the student has completed for a term. The percentage completed is calculated as days attended in the period (based on the official withdrawal date) divided by the total days in the term.

If the percentage completed exceeds 60%, the student has earned 100% of his/her Title IV financial aid. During the Summer Term, a student will have earned 100% of his/her Title IV financial aid on 7/11 for Full-term and Evening (Session III), 6/19 for Mini-Session I, and 7/25 for Mini-Session II.

If the percentage completed is 60% or less, this percentage is applied to the total Title IV financial aid awarded to the student for the term and could result in the student having to repay Title IV Funds and owe the College tuition and fees.

STUDENT SERVICES

The offices of Student Services are open from 7:30 a.m. until 6:30 p.m. Monday through Thursday, and 7:30 a.m. until 2:30 p.m. on Friday. These offices are located in the Jeff Bishop Center - Andalusia Campus (334-881-2279), Greenville Campus (334-383-6705), or MacArthur Campus (334-493-5360).

New Brockton Mayor Charles Cole says he will not seek re-election

by Linda Hodge, Editor

During the New Brockton Town Council meeting held Monday evening, May 5, Mayor Charles Cole answered questions about his intentions to seek re-election as mayor later this year.

Mayor Cole said he is asked almost daily if he is going to run for mayor again. He said his response is "no."

"I've done it long enough," he said. "I have no intention to run (for office)."

Cole did say he will continue to work with the city by serving on committees and such.

"Whoever seeks office, I pray and hope they have the best interest of the town in mind," said Cole. "We've got to be concerned about the town, and we need people (in office) who want to see the town move forward."

The mayor said July 1-15 is the appropriate time for interested candidates to qualify to run for city office in New Brockton. Those interested should come by the clerk's office during that time to fill out paperwork and pay the qualifying fee.

Town clerk Annette Williams said it costs $45 to run for council member in New Brockton and $50 to run for mayor.

Council members approved two resolutions during Monday's meeting regarding application for a CDBG Grant (Community Development & Block Grant) for the water department.

First council members approved a resolution giving the mayor authority to sign for the grant. Second, the council voted to accept the match portion of the grant if approved.

Mayor Cole said the application is for $400,000 and the town's match will be $195,000 if the application is approved. He said the town has signed an agreement with the water board indicating the water board is responsible for the grant.

If the grant is approved, Mayor Cole said the funds will be used to upgrade the town's sewage system. Council member Jeff White said an upgrade to the town's waste water treatment plant is needed.

Council members also approved a resolution during the meeting in support of a Legislative bill allowing a referendum of the wet/dry issue. Cole said passing the resolution only indicates the town council's support in giving the citizens the opportunity to vote on a referendum regarding this issue.

Also, during Monday evening's meeting, council members approved paying the monthly bills totaling $51,313.80, and approved a motion to enter the South Alabama Mutual Aid Agreement.

Coffee County began a first-time project this week when workers started placing raised pavement markers (orange reflectors) on designated roads. According to county engineer Randy Tindell, the county's budget allowed for just over 52 miles of county roads to receive the reflectors this year. The county also will use new equipment purchased jointly with Houston and Dale counties to place centerline striping on 173.81 miles of county roads this year. The placement of reflectors began on Monday of this week. District Three commissioner Robert Stephens (shown above watching) was on-site Tuesday morning, May 6, to get a first-hand look at the placement of reflectors on County Road 452 (near the Perry's Store Community). Stephens said he is proud to see the county able to make improvements to things it did not have years ago. Until the purchase of this new equipment, Coffee County was not able to afford to place the reflectors on roads due to high costs. Stephens said he is excited about this project because it will increase safety for motorists in Coffee County.

Coffee County begins safety enhancement project for roads

by Linda Hodge, Editor

During a recent Coffee County Commission meeting, county engineer Randy Tindell received the go-ahead from commissioners to begin a road project new to Coffee County, and that work began this week.

Coffee County joined forces with Dale and Houston counties to purchase road striping equipment along with the equipment to place raised pavement markers (orange reflectors) in the center of roads. This week, crews were able to begin placing the raised pavement markers on designated roads within the county.

Elba Mayor James Grimes plans to seek re-election to city office

Elba Mayor James Grimes said Tuesday morning of this week that he will definitely be a candidate for re-election in this summer's municipal elections.

"I thank the citizens of Elba for allowing me to serve three terms," said Grimes. "Hopefully they will allow me to serve another term."

The citizens and the community as a whole have been through some rough and trying times in recent years but by working together we continue to make Elba a better place to live.

The mayor continued, "I would like to complete the ongoing projects the city is involved in including the long range plan to clean up and beautify our city. I also want to continue the improvements to the pumping system and storm water storage basins that con-ment markers (orange reflectors) in the center of roads. This week, crews were able to begin placing the raised pavement markers on designated roads within the county.

Tindell said commissioners, budgeted for just over 52 miles of Coffee County's roads to receive the reflectors this year. He said it costs so much to have the raised pavement markers that Coffee County has not been able to have them in the past.

Elba municipal elections will be held on August 26th with any required run-off on October 7th. Qualifying for mayor and all five council districts begins on July 1st and ends on July 15th (at 5 p.m.) this year.

The new terms of office will begin on November 3rd and officials will serve for four years.

but the joint project with Houston and Dale counties made it possible.

"This is probably the biggest bang for the buck we've had as far as safety for the public," Tindell said.

He said the reflectors will help motorists in their travels at night.

Commissioner Robert Stephens was onsite Tuesday morning, May 6, as crews placed the reflectors on County Road 452, and he said he can not help but think about all the improvements the county is making today that it did not have years ago.

"One thing we've (county) been able to do is accomplish these things on the roads without any extra taxes on our citizens," said Stephens. "Efficiency has made it possible."

The 52+ miles of road involved in the reflector project were chosen, according to Tindell, based on the condition of the road's pavement and current centerline stripe. In the future, he hopes the county will be able to budget for more roads to receive the reflectors.

When commissioners approved for the reflector project, they also gave approval for 173.81 miles of county roads to receive centerline striping this year with the new equipment purchased with Houston and Dale counties. Tindell said that equipment is not ready yet, but once it arrives that project will be underway.

Again, he stressed the importance of joining forces with Houston and Dale counties indicating the centerline striping would cost at least three times more if the county hired an outside company to do the work.

With this project now underway, Commissioner Stephens said he has thought maybe the three counties (Coffee, Houston and Dale) will be able to get-together on more stuff in the future to continue to save their citizens money while improving safety and conditions.

When commissioners approved this major striping/reflecter project in April, Tindell said Coffee County does have some of the best roads in the state, but the county is always looking for ways to improve safety for motorists through enhancements. He said the overall objective is to reduce accidents on county roads.

Tindell and Stephens both said they are excited about the project and hope the county is able to do more and more in the future.
